Benjamin Young Interview

Interviewer: Good morning, Benjamin! As we head into summer, I'd love to hear about your plans and how you'll be spending your time. Can you give us a glimpse of what your summer schedule looks like?

Benjamin: Absolutely! Thanks for having me. My summer schedule is shaping up to be quite exciting. Firstly, I'll be taking a much-needed vacation with my family to a beachside resort. We're looking forward to relaxing, soaking up the sun, and enjoying some quality time together. After that, I've lined up a few lawn mowing gigs to earn some extra cash. As the saying goes, "I'd rather be pushing lawnmowers than pushing papers." It's a great way to make money while staying active outdoors. I'll be dedicating a few days each week to providing reliable and efficient lawn care services for my neighbors. It's an opportunity to sharpen my time management and entrepreneurial skills while enjoying the fresh air. Balancing relaxation and seizing entrepreneurial opportunities is my aim for this summer!
